Anti-Slavery Statement

This statement, made pursuant to section 54(01) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, sets out the approach taken by ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to its business, and the actions undertaken to mitigate any such risks during the financial year ended 31.12.2017.

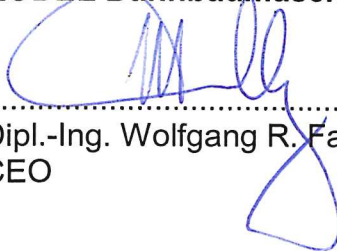

ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH is an autonomously run company of the Deutsche Plasser Group, specialised in the design, manufacture, repair and maintenance of railway machinery. The ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH employees are currently based in Germany. Our supply chains consist of global suppliers of parts services and consultancy, computer software and equipment, and office supplies.

ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH is committed to delivering high standards of corporate governance and a key element of this is managing the Company in a socially responsible way. The Company aims to employ the highest ethical and professional standards and always to comply with all local laws and regulations applicable to our business; it follows that ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities and its supply chains.

This commitment to comply with legislation is emphasised in our company policies. ROBEL Bahnbaumaschinen GmbH also expects the same high standards which we set for ourselves from those parties with whom we engage, such as our suppliers and customers.

Due to the nature of our business and our approach to governance, we assess that there is very low risk of slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains. However, we aim to periodically - review the effectiveness of the relevant policies and procedures that we have in place. We do not have key performance indicators in relation to slavery or human trafficking as any instance would be expected to be a breach of law, our supplier standards and/or our company policies.
